The Chairman reported that the Parish Council Zoom Meetings had been most successful, all Members joining promptly, with good comments, and business carried out swiftly, despite being unused to this system of having Council debate. The Chairman thanked all Members for their dedication during these difficult months.

During the last year Cllr Mrs Stuart had been co-opted onto the Council, making a full compliment of Members, she had also attended an LALC run training course. The Chairman thanked Cllr Fry (ELDC) for his continued attendance at Meetings and for the support and assistance he gave to the Parish Council at all times.
